10.9 Notices

10.9.1 References in this Part 10 to a notice are to a notice or communication to be given by one Code Party to another. Such notices shall be sent to the registered address or facsimile number given in the Accession Agreement or the Framework Agreement (as appropriate) or by electronic delivery by e-mail or otherwise to such address as the Code Party shall notify to the other Code Parties from time to time.

10.9.2 Any notice given by delivery shall be given by letter delivered by hand, and any notice given by post shall be sent by first class recorded delivery post.

10.9.3 Any notice shall be deemed to have been received:-

(i) in the case of delivery by hand, when delivered;

(ii) in the case of first class recorded delivery post, on the second day following the day of posting;

(iii) in the case of facsimile, on acknowledgement by the recipient Code Parties facsimile receiving equipment;

(iii) in the case of electronic means, on receipt of a delivery receipt or similar acknowledgement being received by the sender which shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

10.9.4 Except where a notice is required under Part 1 (Commencement Objectives and Principles) or this Part 10, nothing in this Section 10.9 shall restrict the means of communication of ordinary data which flows on a day to day basis in accordance with the Market Code.
